Luncheon to Highlight Cincinnati UN Week

CPYRGHT

A luncheon discussion devoted to the United Nations highlights plans for UN Week Oct. 20 to 27 in Cincinnati.

"The purpose of UN Week is to encourage individual citizens to better acquaint themselves with the policies and practices of the United Nations — especially concerning United States participation — and form personal opinions," says Richard J. Mack, president of Mack Shirt Co. and vice president of the Cincinnati Council on World Affairs.

William A. Mitchell, formerly chairman of the Central Trust Co., is chairman of the Council, appointed by Mayor Walter H. Bachrach to co-ordinate the activities. Mayor Bachrach has proclaimed Thursday, Oct. 24, as United Nations Day in Cincinnati.

"World Front" television program, seen at noon Sundays on WLWT will devote its Oct. 20 and Oct. 27 shows to discussion of the UN.

"United States Security Policies—What Role for the UN?" is the topic of a debate at United Nations luncheon Oct. 24 at the Sinton. Dr. Lincoln P. Bloomfield and Col. William R. Kintner will discuss U. S. relations with the world body.

Col. Kintner is a graduate of West Point and a veteran of World War II and the Korean action. He holds the Legion of Merit and Bronze

Mr. Mitchell Mr. Mack

Star and has served in the Central Intelligence Agency, the Defense Department and as special assistant to President Eisenhower. He authored the book "Building the Atlantic World."

Dr. Bloomfield is director of the Arms Control Project at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Center for International Studies. He served in the State Department from 1946 to 1958 and was director of the United Nations Project at MIT from 1957-61.

Tickets to the luncheon may be obtained from the Council.
